The Henrietta Pulskamp Abegglen Scholarship

Henrietta Abegglen, whose bequest has created this scholarship, was born in Celina, Ohio, October 20, 1904, and died in Oxford, Ohio, September 27, 1989.

She graduated Magna cum Laude from Miami University in 1927 and went on to earn a Master's degree from The Ohio State University and a diploma from the Sorbonne in Paris. While teaching at Miami she met and married Homer N. Abegglen, a member of the faculty of the Department of Theatre. The wedding took place in 1937. Henrietta continued to teach part-time following her marriage.

Their marriage was a genuine partnership, for they both were intensely interested in theatre, art and music. They loved Miami University and had great affection for their students, especially those with whom they came in very close contact through Homer's play direction.

The criteria for awarding this scholarship as well as the method stipulated reflect Henrietta's life and character. She was a highly successful college student at a time when not too many women pursued education beyond high school. By identifying this scholarship as one to be awarded to a female student attending Miami University, she asserts the value of such preparation for serious students of her gender.

Henrietta loved her faith, a fact that is demonstrated in part by her stipulation that the Pastor of St. Mary's Church in Oxford or his delegates be responsible for selecting the recipient of this annual award.

Incidentally, it is interesting to note that the two churches that were most important to her in her life were both dedicated to Mary, the mother of Jesus. In Celina her church was The Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Finally, it should be remembered that some of Henrietta's teaching took place during the depression years of the 1930s, a time when higher education was a bit beyond the reach of many young people. She certainly was aware of students with special needs and of course, such needs continue to exist.
